Subject: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by The Mother on Fri, 19 Apr 2013 14:08:36 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Is anyone here old enough, and from a rural enough area to remember "Swap and Shop" on the radio? We used to listen every day. It was an audio version of the free classified ads.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by Wayne Parham on Fri, 19 Apr 2013 15:02:10 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

There's still a program like that where I live. It's called "Dial a Deal" and it's broadcast in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by The Mother on Fri, 19 Apr 2013 17:11:02 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

That's pretty cool but it must not be local if it's in three states, right? These were for just about one local county, and people called in to say they had fresh eggs for sale, or puppies to give away.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by Wayne Parham on Fri, 19 Apr 2013 17:51:51 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

It's local, yes. I think it's a show broadcast in Northwestern Arkansas, which just happens to be close enough to Missouri and Oklahoma to be heard in those states.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by The Mother on Fri, 19 Apr 2013 18:00:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Ah! I forget the three touching corners right there.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by Kingfish on Wed, 24 Apr 2013 02:54:20 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I vaguely remember something like that growing up. We lived in a small town close to very rural areas and the local station I think had that. Between that station and WLS in Chicago, there was never a dull moment on the radio.

Subject: Re: Swap and Shop on the Radio
Posted by Chicken on Mon, 29 Apr 2013 00:04:33 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I grew up in a rural area but I don't remember anything like that. It sounds pretty cool though and I definitely would have tuned in.