I watched Gone last night on cable and I was hooked through the whole movie. Gone is about a girl who has to save her sister from the same serial killer that had tried to kill her a year before. It was always keeping you guessing about who the bad guy was and whether or not there really was a bad guy or if she was just crazy. I was disappointed by the ending, because when she finally confronted the killer she was able to overtake him far too easily.

I don't remember this one. Must not be new, right, since you saw it on cable? Or was it made for TV? I assume it is based on a book? You linked to Amazon, but that page has several books with the title Gone by different authors. Do you know if the book ended so weakly too? Sometimes movies, and especially TV movies just don't dare be as grim as a book.

It is fairly new, but it wasn't made for TV. I don't know if it was based on a book, but I don't think that it was.
