After being forced to take a year off because of a granuloma, John Mayer is officially back! I went to see him in concert last night and he sounds great. The show was awesome and I can't wait to see him again. Is anyone else going to catch this tour? Where at?

The last 2 albums have been pretty mellow and I really like them too. I love that you can listen to his whole discography and see his growth as not only an artist, but a person as well.
