Have any of you listened to Acoustic Zen Crescendo speakers? What did you think? I read a positive review and the title made me think they were inexpensive. Who knew that $16,000 per pair was inexpensive?

I guess cost is relative, but when I think of cheap speakers, I think under $1000. $16,000 is way more than I could ever spend.

I heard them at the California Audio Show this year, held in San Francisco. They were good, but I wouldn't buy them, even if I could afford them. I can't. They offered the show sample to me at a considerable discount. Nice people though.
