Have you ever wished that there was a nationally recognized holiday for vinyl records? Well, you're not the only one. Adding to my ever-growing list of interesting web-sites, here you go:

If I get paid to take the day off, sure, I'm all for it.

I don't think THAT will ever happen, but I think it's a good idea. Vinyl has had a great impact on society and it should be recognized.

I clicked on that site and they mentioned something about postage stamps. That's an interesting idea as well. I think individual states will do something like this before the feds do. Just a hunch.

I can see why it'd be neat to have a vinyl record day, but I wouldn't expect it to gain much recognition, either. A vinyl records stamp series would be cool too.
