Does anyone here listen to Megadeth? I've been listening to them for a few years now and the more I hear, the more I like them. I was really surprised to find that their newest album, just released last June, is only $5 on Amazon.

I like Megadeth, too. They're a very underrated band if you ask me. Most people don't even know that the lead singer used to be in Metallica! Anyways, thanks for the heads up about their new album. I'll definitely be snagging it while it's only $5.

I love Megadeth and Dave Mustaine probably is one of the most underrated musicians of our time. I saw a really great documentary with him and Metallica and now I am trying to remember the name of it. I didn't even know they had a new album out so I will have to look into that!
