Which was your favorite Super Bowl commercial? Mine was the tear-jerker commercial with the puppy and the Clydesdale horses, where the puppy keeps whining to go back and be with the horse. It was so precious!

I didn't watch the Super Bowl last night, so I didn't catch any of the commercials. A couple friends of mine did watch, though, and said that most of the commercials were pretty lame. Apparently there was one with Don Cheadle and Arnold that they could have done a lot more with than what they did.
