What is your favorite genre of movies or TV shows? Mine is Sci-Fi, I've always been interested in it. I like watching them because I've always wondered what the future would be like, what we will be able to do and if there are people other than us out there in space.

I often like sci-fi too, but it depends on the show. I didn't like Battlestar Galactica, for instance, because it was such a downer all the time.

I am torn, personally. I really like fantasy, like Game of Thrones, but I also like crime dramas like The Killing. I guess if I had to pick one or the other it would be fantasy; crime dramas are great but can get a bit redundant after a while.
