Are there any good movies that you would recommend circulating in the Redbox machines right now? I just found out that we have a Redbox at a Dollar General not even a mile from our house!

Just go check it out; you'll probably find something you like! Redbox was such a great idea and I bet whoever started it is raking it in. I wish I had thought of it.

I am not sure. The movies in my local redbox might be different than the movies in yours. Just take some time and look through the movies. I am sure you will find something.
