My wife used to love to go clubbing back when she was still single. Now that she's married, she says she misses it. When I asked her why, she said it's really just the dancing to club music that she likes. Can you get club music outside of a club? Do they make mixed CDs or something like that of hits that are currently playing in the clubs?

Yes, she can get club mixes. Just start looking. They may not be exactly the same as the ones she hears in the clubs, because that will vary by the DJ, but she can find general club music.
