Most of the time it doesn't affect me profoundly when a celebrity dies, but Glenn Frey's passing really took my breath away. I've loved the Eagles from a young age and always hoped I'd be able to see them live one day.

I know what you mean. It was always a dream of mine as well to go and see them play live. This has definitely been a bad start to the year. So many talented people have been lost.

I know exactly how you feel. I was shocked for days after I read the news. Even now I have a hard time wrapping my head around it; it's as if they were immortal or timeless somehow.
