What music can you recommend for studying? I'm a full-time college student with just over a year left until I get my Bachelor's. Oddly enough, I have trouble concentrating when it's dead silent (I have this thing about it being too quiet...) but most of the music I have is distracting. Suggestions?

I would suggest classical music, but there are also playlists on Spotify for studying. I think they're up under the 'Focus' genre. You could even do one of the 'Sleep' playlists because they're all made up of either storm tracks or classical stuff.
