Do you have a favorite artist you don't tell anyone about? C'mon.....we all have one. Crystal is mine.

I just think she's the hottest thing this side of Phoenix in August.

If I said Boy George would you hold it against me?

Actually it's 70's country. Ronnie Milsap, George Jones, etc....When I've had a hard day and don't want to deal with anyone anymore, I slap on some of that vinyl for a few hours and all is right with the world again.

I don't tell anyone that I still like Paula Abdul and listen to her when no one is around. I actually still listen to a lot of music from the late 80s and early 90s, but I would never share that information with anyone!

Classical music. I wouldn't really call it a "guilty" pleasure though. I don't tell anyone for the simple fact that they wouldn't believe me if I did.

John Hiatt. With that artist, I feel like a possessive stalker. Only I can appreciate his music and no one else is will appreciate it as much as I do.

Here, I'll give you all a peek. You can look, but don't touch.

Nikki Minaj. I hate it but her songs are so catchy. I listen to her music too often although I haven't actually bought an album or anything so it's not too bad.

Though I would not call it 'guilty pleasure' as such, my favorite artiste is J Cole. I know he has been a bit quiet of late but his music just does it for me.
