I've been in a retro mood lately so I'm playing the Captain Fantastic CD by Elton John lately. I'll probably switch back the The Farm Dogs' Immigrant Sons CD later in the week.

What about you?

I've been listening to a lot of late 90's alternative punk music. There has been talk of two different concerts in my area for Weezer and Blink 182 and it got me back in the mood of the music that I used to listen to.

I was searching for songs for my friend's wedding. She's a fan of Korean songs, so I'm glad when I found this song. It doesn't look popular because the views are not that much, but I enjoyed the song and the lyrics. It's a nice song to add to your wedding playlist if you're looking for one.

It's the only song of theirs I know of where Freddie wasn't on lead vocals. It's a good road song and it really gets the blood pumping.
