I think there are people who are super talented. I have watched three movies in which Dwayne has starred and they were never a disappointment. He was such an entertainer on Wrestlmania as well. What do you think of Dwayne?

I think he's a good actor, but I'm not a fan of the types of movies he plays In. His family themed movies are OK though.

I loved his most recent movie called Central Intelligence, where he acted alongside Kevin Hart. He is an entertainer and I think being able to pull all those achievements is no mean fete. Which are some of these family themed movies? I could try watching them.
