What does everyone here listen to on Monday mornings? Do you have a special playlist just to help you get going at the start of the new week or do you just listen to whatever you have lying around? I'm trying to put a play list together for next week.

Monday mornings are normally quite busy for me so I will often just have my earphones on and listen to anything that comes up. However when I have time, I love to listen to Coldplay, Hinder and Owl City.

I like songs like this https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9EtWmB9Fkqk to start off my week with. It gets me pumped up and ready for anything, but not in a loud, in-your-face-kind of way.
