Subject: 80 bucks worth of LP's; don't bother to call!
Posted by BillEpstein on Sun, 06 Feb 2005 13:02:32 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Cruised on down to Columbus yesterday for the quarterly record show put on a by a local dealer, Colleen's Collectibles. This one was especially important to me as Vinyl is now my primary source.Found a dealer with 8 big boxes all marked $3.Emmy Lou Harris, CimarronJoan Sutherland, Art of the Prima DonnaDizzy Gillespie, An Electrifying Evening WithBrahms Double, Heifetz/Piatigorsky (Soria Series)Tosca, Milanov, Bjoerling, Warren; RCA Victrola!...Bjoerling!!!!Cavelleria Rusticana, Callas, DiStefano, TozziJames Galway, Mozart: The Two Flute ConcertosThen I went for some must haves to replace CD's.Retrospective, Buffalo Springfield $7Count Basie, li'l ole groovemaker $9.50King Crimson, Court of the Crimson King $13Sonny Rollins, Alfie soundtrack $15 (Outrageosly great pressing)B,S&T, Child Is Father To the Man $10Joni Mitchell, Blue $4I had given up finding any Joni Mitchell and then there it was for 4 bucks! Every album is VG+ or better. Some look never played. And there's so much more involvement at a show, not just in the music, but everything to do with Analogue now that it's a "cult" thing. Finding records, components, parts, sharing knowledge and inter-acting with other collectors is so great.An added bonus is using "Blue" to set the speed on my Ariston. There's a strobe disc in the mat but it's so worn I can't get it to stop moving. I put "Blue" on the CD player and on the Turntable, synchro'd them as best I could and then A-B'd until the table had the same pitch as the CD. Everything had been off a full tone!OK, it's 9 A.M. Time to wake the neighbors. Don't bother to call!

Subject: Sweet!
Posted by Wayne Parham on Sun, 06 Feb 2005 13:51:20 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

You always find the best catches! I mean, really!