The last animation movie I watched was Zootopia and I loved it. This is the only genre of movies that can keep me awake. My all time favorite was Rango. There's a lot of creativity in the creation of animations.

Animated movies are a lot of fun, not only for children, but for adults too. I haven't had a chance to go and see "Zootopia" yet. How was it? The last animated movie I saw was "The Secret Life of Pets". Boy was that movie hilarious!

It has good lessons and how people can use deceit for their own gains. I haven't watched "The Secret Life of Pets." It is officially in my bucket list.
