I get in these moods sometimes when all I want to hear is older records on a turntable. I don't care about the lack of quality when compared to the the newest technology, there are times when this way sounds the best to me.

Anyone else have bouts of nostalgia like this?

All the time. I can't stomach most of the new stuff and I don't have the time to wade through that swamp to find the good music.

Most of the new stuff isn't as appealing and even lacks enough quality at times. I get serious bouts of nostalgia, every time I listen to an old tune. I miss the good old days.
