We all dream of them, some of us have them but there's always some way to improve upon them. What is your dream when it comes to your perfect space?

A good stereo system with accompanying visual equipment, a good selection of books, two top-notch computers and a pool table.

That's the dream, and it will happen.

Hi, Great audio system. OK to have video and PC but not IMO needed. Confortable furniture, lighting etc. Quiet when not listening to music. Lots of media storage. And....most important a door to keep non-believers out.

I agree. A door would be the most essential, and a big key to go with it. Nothing like a little privacy once in a while. I would want a pool table in mine, too.

I like how everyone here thinks the same way. I think if we were all to come together to design one perfect man cave, it would be the best one the world has ever seen. What do you say - should we give it a try?
