I'm watching "Sounds Of The Game" right now. It's a football show that gives viewers the sounds of the game as they were being played. From the sounds/talking on the field to the talking on the sidelines and the sound is very high quality.

I was just wondering if anyone knows what system brand or brands the NFL utilizes.

Brands would be more like it, but I don't know if the NFL has a licencing agreement with just one company or manufacturer. I do see Bose headsets being used though.
