Are you into comics, and if so which ones are your favorite? For me it's Multiversity right at the top, and then Marvel comics. What's yours?

I've never heard of Multiversity. Maybe I've been living under a rock or maybe I'm just not as much into comics as I used to be when I was younger. I like reading the Archie series of comics.

I have never been keen on comics but you guys make it look like something worth checking out. Where would you advise me to start from?

It depends. What do you like? Do you like movies like Superman and The Avengers and so on? If so, then you'll probably like the Marvel series of comics.
