Does anyone here pay for Amazon Unlimited Music? Do you think it's a good value? Unfortunately, I missed the sale on Prime Day. I can't figure out the difference between Prime Music and Amazon Unlimited Music other than unlimited will play on an Echo and Dot while other requires an app. Did I miss anything?

Amazon Music Unlimited is great in my opinion. They sometimes remove certain albums, but other than that, I generally find all the music I need and they have a great offline mode. I know that you can sign up for a free trial if you want to test it out.

I'm hearing about this for the first time. What are the rates and do you get to stream the music? I always listen or watch my favorite tunes via YouTube so I'm just wondering how different this would be.

Looks like You Tube Red in a way. Their main marketing angle seems to be "Listen ad free". I'll keep with my current methods of listening, thank you.
