This Minions gift set is great for when you're not sure what type of setup the child has at home. For less than $16 you get the DVD, Blu-Ray, digital download, and a Minion's plush backpack. At least one of the movie options should work for most families. If you want it in time for Christmas you'll likely have to head to the store.

Oh hey, thank you for sharing! I've actually been trying to think of a gift for a moderate price for a little guy in my life and this seems perfect! Also great for a toy drive for an orphanage at my church.

That is such a great idea. I have a 7 year old who just loves the minions. She already has enough presents for Christmas, but I can still get it for her birthday in January.
