Subject: Documentaries
Posted by Channon on Thu, 07 Jun 2018 01:47:54 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I've been getting really into watching documentaries lately. I've watched a great one on Bobby Fischer (what a tragic story, man), Icarus, and one about Scientology. They were all fascinating. What are some of your favorite documentaries? Is anyone going to watch the one about Mr. Rogers that is coming out at some point this year?

Subject: Re: Documentaries
Posted by utopia on Fri, 08 Jun 2018 19:16:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

As much as I used to love Mr. Rogers, I don't know if I'm going to be seeing the documentary. I don't think I'll go out of my way to see it at least. The Road Movie is supposed to be really good.

Subject: Re: Documentaries
Posted by Kingfish on Sun, 24 Jun 2018 19:29:36 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In this day and age, when all of our old "heroes" have been disgraced by their own actions, I would love to see a doc. on Mr. Rogers.

Every single person who has ever worked with him or knew him said he was the best guy you would ever want to know.

I'm there at opening day.

Subject: Re: Documentaries
Posted by Rusty on Mon, 25 Jun 2018 15:02:26 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Ken Burns seems to be the hot shot in documentaries these days. My favorite subject's of his were the civil war, jazz and baseball. There's a dated now, but one of the most comprehensive documentaries of WWII called The World At War. A masterpiece to my mind.