I just had to put this song on here. It is so applicable.

I have this song on one of my Spotify channels. Every time I hear it I can't help but think that the more things change, the more they stay the same. Some chat forums are the modern equivilent of all night talk radio shows.

I used to have my radio on when I was on the road or at home while working or sleeping. We can find everything on YouTube or Spotify these days. What I missed the most is the interaction, though. The announcers felt like dear friends who would listen to us anytime.
