Hey guys!Just wanted to express my thanks for all those that attended the November Audiophile Club Meeting, it was Great! I want to thank everyone for their participation, and hopefully everyone learned or experienced as many new things as I did. With great appreciation for those that brought equipment, Forrest, Mark, Bill, Norris, and Wayne. Marks tube amp really made Wayne's Horns sing!Also great thanks to the girls who graciously catered to our stomachs. I hope everyone enjoyed themselves and thanks for coming. I can't wait to hear the line array Bill is building and Norris's new tube amp. Perhaps at the next meeting!?Bob Soden

Hi everyone,I would like to chime in here and second Bob's opinion that the November Great Plains meeting was great. I really enjoyed all the music, equipment, food and most of all, meeting some really nice people. I had hoped that more of the other members could have attended, but I will look forward to future meeting so I can eventually meet all of you. Until January's meeting, keep safe and enjoy the music.Norris Wilson

Always wanted to hear one. Rodgers EL-84 RM-10 is so fine but I prefer the EL-34. MSN MAP says ONLY 884 miles to Tulsa.....when's the next meet?

Hi Bill,I really like the RM-9. Mark tells me the reason the RM-9 isn't in production anymore was thatit was costly to manufacture. I don't think I've ever heard an RM-10 to compare it with, but Mark seems to think the RM-9 is the best. It sure sounds nice and looks good too. Not too expensive either; Street price is about $2500.00.The next Great Plains Audio Club meeting will be in January at Bill Wassilak's house. He is building some line arrays and should have them done by then. I'll have some test results on the cooling vents for the push-pull basshorn, so I may do a little show and tell too. Both Norris Wilson and Mark Margiotta are building amplifiers, so they might be done and be able to bring them. There will be a lot of exciting projects coming together in the first part of next year.I'd love to see you Bill. It's a long drive, but the flight might be just right. Alona and I would be happy to have you stay with us, so let me know.Wayne
