I was crying while watching this film because Toggle Spoilertwo of my favorite characters have died in the movie to save the people they love.

I hope Disney producers would continue the legacy of the Marvel heroes (and Stan Lee), and create Marvel movies that have the same or even better quality as the previous ones.

I'm guessing, like all Marvel series, they will be remade.

I had read they retired this series (10-15 yrs?) not just because it was played out, but due the characters actors getting too old as well.

I enjoyed them and own most.

Of course, for me, having high sensitivity, theater type loudspeakers is half that reason!

I was also emotional while watching the movie. The opening scene was very dramatic that it made me realize more how important the time and life we have. I will miss some of the Avenger characters, but I'm sure that there will be more characters to come that will fill the gap of the retired heroes.

I just watched this, missed it on the big screen. I thought it was good, not great. I had to ask my husband a few times which movie some of them were from. I would like to watch them all again - and then this one.
