As you know Martin DeWulf had passed away in late March from a heart attack. He had type 1 diabetes.

I just found out from Mrs. Laura DeWulf, that their only son, Jason has passed away from a heart attack yesterday.

Jason was only 36 years old. He did not have any form of diabetes.

Of course all inquiries and dealings are now suspended.

My heart just sinks. I ask for your prayers for Laura DeWulf and sister.

Sincerely,

steve

Oh my God, what a huge loss for Laura DeWulf and the DeWulf family.

Sometimes, things like this push me to try to visualize the thoughts, feelings and environments of the person I've just heard or read about.

Can you imagine the shock and grief that Mrs. DeWulf must feel? After so many hours have passed that she finally sleeps from exhaustion, she wakes up to the horror of remembering that her loved ones are dead. So after that shock, she is lost and sad, and maybe mad at God. She doesn't want to be mad at God, but she is mad anyway. She can't find any distraction from her loss. Nothing she can do will hold her attention. She doesn't really care what she eats or if she eats at all. She only eats when she is so hungry she feels pain, and then it is whatever is handy. And she can't sleep until she is exhausted...

I'm just so sorry for her loss, and that of the rest of her family.

Thank you for your concern Wayne. I admit I am in shock. They have had such a tough time, with covid and all; now Laura and daughter have to deal with two deaths within 6 months.

So Sad indeed.
