Was anyone as surprised as me to see Eric Church win Entertainer of the Year? It certainly has been a crazy year, with no concerts. I guess I never thought he would win. Why do you think he won?

I'm not a country music fan, so I didn't watch the awards. I've heard about the drama though. Do you think Carrie Underwood winked at him or Miranda Lambert?

I didn't watch the awards but I do like some of his music. I think his music sounds like a mix of modern country, pop, and choir. There's something for every taste in his catalog, so I'm not surprised he won. What about you, sammi40?

I love his music! I like his rock sound more than the choir songs. I think he should have won, it's refreshing to see someone new win.

I'm not sure that he winked. I read about the drama but didn't catch it when I was watching.

I wasn't surprised at all. Eric Church is an amazing singer and entertainer too. I say, bravo - about time. Of course there were people and other stars who thought he shouldn't have won.
