With regret, we're cancelling LSAF 2021. We had already made arrangements for the first weekend in June, and Embassy Suites tells us they are starting to get lots of events coming in this summer. Many of our regular exhibitors are itching to get out and do the deal. But the truth is that many exhibitors are still concerned and that alone is a warning flag. We don't want any of our shows to be controversial or contentious. So we are cancelling LSAF 2021 but fully expect to have one in June of 2022.

Hi, Yes, likely the best choice. It will make us all more eager to go next year.

It's Sunday June 6th at dinnertime and it would have been the end of another LSAF.

We should all be at Babe's eating fried chicken. :d

Next year for sure.

Hi, Always a good time and we (Oddwatt) hope to be there. Some new stuff to bring...I might come on my own if we can't get the new gear fabricated and components sourced that went belly up during the past year.

Oh, wow, Barry - You're right!

Yes, next year for sure. Glad to hear you'll be there too, Bruce!
