My subscription ran out in my vehicle but the monthly price is crazy high. I listen to the app on my phone too. Anyone know of other options for my vehicle? I have to have the MLB and NFL channels. I listen to the Yankees and any football team.

Good luck! I keep paying their crazy prices too. I love listening to MLB or the NFL when I'm out and about. I could care less about the music (I prefer Amazon music or Pandora).

I don't believe you'll find anything that's exactly like it, but there are several apps out there that offer free radio. Some even include free sports channels. When I've tried to cancel my subscription before, the Sirirus rep lowered the fee significantly for several months. Try that.

If that doesn't work, nothing will. Those reps don't get paid to lose subscriptions. They get paid to bring new ones in and retain existing ones.
