In 1985 Miki's father Dan, started Acry-Tech Coatings. While it started as a paint company, Dan quickly developed new industry leading products.

Please have a listen to Miki to learn about Acry-Tech and learn about the new formula of DuraTex that makes it stand out from their competitors. From car audio, home audio/theater or Pro Audio, DuraTex Coating has you covered. ;)

I, for one, trust the brand. They specialize in coatings in general, even damping coatings. They seem to really like what do and specialize in.

Very good interview you posted, thank you.
