Oh my! I was listening to a hairband station and my daughter asked why I was listening to the "oldies"?. I can remember my parents listening to the Golden oldies. I can't believe my daughter thinks my music is that!

Now that is funny! My children do the same... oldies! They will whine when I put HairNation on in the car. I'll get them to like it someday! I can remember complaining to my parents too about listening to the oldies.

I will admit that I secretly liked my parent's music but I did not tell them. I wonder if my children really do like mine too. I do like a lot of the newer music too (just not a huge rap fan).
