How many series or movies have you started and will someday finish? My list includes Succession (two episodes in), Impeachment: American Crime Story (first 10 minutes in), and RRR (first 5 minutes so far).

The Old Man. Dad gum it! Not because I lost interest, the season and show just came to a halt. Right at a pivotal moment. I'm reading though that the star of the show, (Jeff Bridges), had a cancer scare. Hopefully they'll finish it.
There's a few movies I've never finished via the Roku box. They were just too lame to finish.

I finally sat down and finished two episodes of Impeachment. The cast is really good. Was stuck between wanting to see this, yet dreading it. Now I'm committed!

Too many to name, sadly. Unfortunately, I'll get really into a series and can't get enough of it, then it'll take a weird turn and I'll slowly lose interest. Still, after spending all that time invested in the story and the characters, I find it hard to delete the show from my DVR. The whole thing is ridiculous. I might watch it again eventually....

I'm thinking of adding Beef to my list. I also accidentally saw a big spoiler for the final season of Succession. Now I'm wondering if it's worth it to keep going.
