Hil'm considering buying a Pro-Ject turntable for the Bellari tube pre-amp (which I've just ordered)I'm thinking either the Debut SE or Xpression II Comfort...Big difference between the two, or not that much?Any recommendations are welcomed.regardsMagnus

I've decided on the Bellari phono preamp as well, but I can't seem to make any decision on which TT.  At least you have your choices narrowed down to 2.....BEst of luck

Have you taken a look at what KABUSA (www.kabusa.com) has to offer? They have a large selection of turntables and a lot of good information on their website.
