Hello Wayne,
I would be very glad to have the plans for the 4pi speakers, for the box and the crossover, since I have the drivers (2226h and DE250) from another diy project.

It's been years since I have red some of your projects, but now will be the time to make it my self!

Best regards from France.

Mr Wayne, I sure would like to see the print for the 4Pi. Would you kindly send me a set? I think the 4Pi speaker is the one for me. Thank you, Rbraxton

Hi Wayne, hoping I could get a set of the 4 pi plans! If the 8 pi plans are available as well I'd be interested in those too. Thanks

Please decide which you prefer and I'll send plans.

The four Pi model is top-of-the-line, but is obviously more expensive. When fully upgraded, the speaker is best-of-class.

The eight Pi model is less expensive, but is really cool looking and great sounding too.

4 pi then, was hoping to see the complexity of the 8 cabinet build to consider it but 4 seems like the right choice for me

Hello Sir!

I am not sure I have the latest. Still a bit concerned about the duty taxes on the H290C horns but can't do without them!

Thanks for the amazing work.

Best regards from France,
Martin
