I like the song more than the video, but I do like the nostalgia from seeing Billy Joel over the years. On a side note, now that he's older he reminds me of Mike Ehrmantraut from Breaking Bad.

Any Billy Joel fans here?

I always loved his song, "Movin' Out."

I never heard of Billy Joel. Than the song Just the way you are played on the radio. I am liking this song, brings back the old days. And in the old days hifi was king.

It's surprising (in a nice way) that we see old names popping up with new songs; I didn't expect Billy Joel to be one of them. I liked him for Just the Way You are and Piano Man, so this new song is right up my style. It stings a little that the song also speaks about him and his relationship with music. I can see why it's awkward for him after a long hiatus from songwriting and recording.
