My thoughts and prayers go out to all of our American service men and women that have sacrificed in an effort to make America safe and to make the world a better place.

While not traditional, I extend my thoughts and prayers to everyone - anywhere in the world - that is imperiled by those that would take their safety or their freedom.

Some pretty messed-up things are going on in the world these days.

Hi All. I agree. I have long thought that if we spent just half as much money and effort on making things better there would be no need for conflict. Unfortunately that concept seems to have alluded the world leaders.
