Subject: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Helen on Fri, 03 Oct 2025 14:43:43 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We have lots of music genre such as Rap, Pop, Rock and others. Some of these genres is related to a particular region as that is the one that lots of people like.

In your area, which one is very popular?

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Bercle on Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:42:12 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The most popular genre in my area is surely Hip Hop or Rap with top artists such as Drake and Kendrick Lamar topping the list of rappers who are making waves in the industry. Some are very good at playing Taylor Swift songs and she is very good at doing pop-type songs. So, it is totally dependent on what a lot of people enjoy watching.

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Rusty on Sat, 18 Jul 2026 20:58:18 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Where I live was once one of the main jazz hub of the nation. Charlie Parker, Ben Webster, Big Joe Turner, Count Basie, Coleman Hawkins. Many more. Those days faded but there's still a vital music scene with a variety of genres. Back in my clubbin days as I refer to it, there was a wonderful blues scene with festivals incorporating blues and jazz. And outdoor events the city put on.

I'm old enough that the wee wee hours are sweet dreams now. Instead of hitting the clubs.

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Bercle on Sun, 20 Sep 2026 11:23:34 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Rusty wrote on Sat, 18 July 2026 15:58Where I live was once one of the main jazz hub of the nation. Charlie Parker, Ben Webster, Big Joe Turner, Count Basie, Coleman Hawkins. Many more. Those days faded but there's still a vital music scene with a variety of genres. Back in my clubbin days as I refer to it, there was a wonderful blues scene with festivals incorporating blues and jazz. And outdoor events the city put on.

I'm old enough that the wee wee hours are sweet dreams now. Instead of hitting the clubs.

The way you talk about those outdoor events, it seems it must have been filled with lots of fun. Can you recall any outstanding experience from attending one of those events?

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Rusty on Thu, 01 Oct 2026 16:13:41 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Well, they all were a standout. So much so, they rather ran together. But, The Count Basie Band was a big band delight. Seeing James Brown & B.B. King for free. The Blues & Jazz Festivals were always a gas. So many artists and venues to go to. And back then, staying out late till the wee hours wasn't such a potential for crime as it is today.

Relaxing gun laws and the urban epidemic with illicit drugs has made late night excursions a choice of potential danger these days. Least from the news I glean from the mayhem over the nights and weekends. But, in all from that period of time in the late 70's through the 80's was sort of a Renaissance of live public music around my parts.

Jazz & blues had been the foundation of rock & roll and I rather wax nostalgic that that trend would make a comeback.

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Bercle on Sat, 03 Oct 2026 17:01:25 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Rusty wrote on Thu, 01 October 2026 11:13Well, they all were a standout. So much so, they rather ran together. But, The Count Basie Band was a big band delight. Seeing James Brown & B.B. King for free. The Blues & Jazz Festivals were always a gas. So many artists and venues to go to. And back then, staying out late till the wee hours wasn't such a potential for crime as it is today.

Relaxing gun laws and the urban epidemic with illicit drugs . made late night excursions a choice of potential danger these days. Least from the news I glean from the mayhem over the nights and weekends. But, in all from that period of time in the late 70's through the 80's was sort of a Renaissance of live public music around my parts.

Jazz & blues had been the foundation of rock & roll and I rather wax nostalgic that that trend would make a comeback.

I don't know for others, but I would say not making strict laws for gun possession and usage made things worse. No one actually feels safe anymore going to clubs at night to enjoy life. I go out sometimes to listen to live bands play, but it is always when I've got my people around.

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Rusty on Sun, 04 Oct 2026 18:20:52 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Quote:I don't know for others, but I would say not making strict laws for gun possession and usage made things worse. No one actually feels safe anymore going to clubs at night to enjoy life. I go out sometimes to listen to live bands play, but it is always when I've got my people around.
Yes, our country's gun laws I think was relaxed as a political contrivance for special interest groups and made big during the election cycles of the late nineties and turn of the century. Then the mass shooting became more and more a part of our society. But the handgun has been the single most prevalent tool for crime.

I've been assaulted twice so far in my life. But I don't carry a friggin gun. I loath them. When I worked in the medical field a ER doc told me that guns by his experience make people stupid. They use them when their minds are enraged and unable to do rational thinking. Arguments account for the most common shootings. But crime isn't far behind.

Subject: Re: Which genre of music is popular in your area?
Posted by Bercle on Thu, 08 Oct 2026 05:59:21 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Rusty wrote on Sun, 04 October 2026 13:20Quote:I don't know for others, but I would say not making strict laws for gun possession and usage made things worse. No one actually feels safe anymore going to clubs at night to enjoy life. I go out sometimes to listen to live bands play, but it is always when I've got my people around.
Yes, our country's gun laws I think was relaxed as a political contrivance for special interest groups and made big during the election cycles of the late nineties and turn of the century. Then the mass shooting became more and more a part of our society. But the handgun has been the single most prevalent tool for crime.

I've been assaulted twice so far in my life. But I don't carry a friggin gun. I loath them. When I worked in the medical field a ER doc told me that guns by his experience make people stupid. They use them when their minds are enraged and unable to do rational thinking. Arguments account for the most common shootings. But crime isn't far behind.

I can't imagine pointing a gun at anyone just because of a disagreement, but like you said, that's being a major cause of shootings around here.

It makes no sense at all.