Growing up, we had lots of cartoon movies that we enjoyed watching. The likes of Tom and Jerry and others.

I've heard that there are adults who still watch such movies, are you the type who still enjoys such movies? Which one do you like watching?

I am not interested in watching cartoons right now. I would rather watch some sport events instead or go see some war movies. It is much more interesting to me instead of watching cartoons at my age.

I've passed the stage of watching cartoons. It is not like I won't enjoy watching it, but I've got little time to do that. I spend the time that I have watching movies and some wildlife documentaries instead of watching cartoon series.

Some people might say that cartoons are for children or they have outgrown them as you said. Well, I don't know if there's lesson to learnt in such movies but the reason why I love to watch cartoons especially Tom and Jerry, it's for the laughter and little fights that follows. I do watch them but not much anymore.

I'm not ashamed to say that I still watch cartoons. It is one of my hobbies and a very good way for me to relax whenever that I feel stressed out. There are times that I pick the older versions of Tom and Jerry just to refresh those old good memories.

I can watch Bugs, Foghorn leghorn, Yosemite Sam & Sylvester as I did as a kid. They still crack me up. Oh, and old Popeye cartoons. Anyone remember cartoons such as Clutch Cargo, Deputy Dog or Rocky & Bullwinkle?

I won't say that I am above watching cartoons because I still do.

Watching them is a way for me to settle down after the day's hectic activities. At the moment, I watch the Adventure Time show. It's a comic show that has some stories that make me laugh. I see watching cartoons as something that is not only meant for kids because I feel satisfied spending time behind the screen to watch these cartoon shows.

I've missed spending time watching the Adventure Time Show. It was one of my favourites last year, but it hasn't been easy for me to enjoy those shows this year because of the certificate that I am pursuing.
