Please keep us posted. I'd love to hear everyone's impression of those cool new arrays you built. And I'd also like to know any interesting stories people have about CES. I heard there are lots of familiar faces at CES this year, like Conan O'Brien, Bill Gates, Craig Barrett, Steven Tyler, Carly Fiorina and Gwen Stefani. Sounds like a great time, and maybe some interesting stories to tell.O'Brien and GatesTyler and BarrettFiorina and Stefani
