We're meeting in Lockhart, near San Antonio, on Saturday, Feb 5th, starting about noon. BYOB & V (vinyl). This is a great opportunity to see some interesting vintage, diy, and store-bought equipment, hear some music you haven't heard before, exchange ideas, and just have a good time. FIRST TIMERS ARE ESPECIALLY WELCOME. Photos from past meetings are at http://wardsweb.org/LSB/

Great photos, thanks!I especially liked the Wyetech Labs Onyx amps and John's linestage. Can you tell me more about them? I've always thought the Ella is an attractive amp too. And the photo of the Antique Sound Labs AQ1006 DT with tubes glowing is excellent.Wyetech Labs Onyx ampsSACD thru John's linestage driving the WyetechsOpera Audio/Consonance/DIYHifiSupply EllaAntique Sound Labs AQ1006 DT

That was three years ago.

The Lone Star Audiofest just happened though, last weekend.
