Hi Wayne, How did the vintage Scott and Pilot amplifiers compare to the Stoetkit jr? Since the vintage amplifiers look like they use tube rectifiers, I would asume that the sound was a little more vintage and rounded in nature.Norris

Jim's collection of amps is really cool. But I'm real enamoured with that Stoetkit, as you probably know. I think I'd rather have it, both for sound and looks. But you should probably sit down with these amps and compare them for yourself.
