Hello All,A friend is parting out some vintage monitors, which I am purchasing,he was amazed at their quality, construction, and sound, but neitherof us knew the company/brand,...They are appoximately the size of aPioneer CS-99, 4-way, 16" woofers, accordian pleated, 2 mids, 3 tweeters, one being a horn-type, and two 2" rounds, similar to theCS-99's.....Large, complex crossovers, with tone switchs....As nearas he can determine, they are Sonic Studio B, AS-447, Have had noluck in finding anything about them,....Anyone familiar with thesespeakers???????, Thank You, thunderhawk
