I was up in Tulsa on some business yesterday and stopped by the Embassy to take a look at the rooms--very nice! We will probably want to have the dining room table and the TV's removed from the front room as the rooms are fairly small and these things will most likely get in the way. There is a nice couch to lounge on and a couple of end tables in the room as well. I would recommend that everyone bring a cheater plug or two as hotel room power...well it's not the best. A good filter probably wouldn't be a bad idea either. BTW, high speed internet in all of the rooms as well. See everyone the end of the month. Lee

BTW, there is also a nice wet bar in every room! Who's bringing the 21 year old Fine Oak Macallan? Lee

The rooms are very nice, I agree. I'm eager to see you and everyone else there, and I expect we'll all have a very nice time.
