I notice there was no mention that they were original. I wonder if a sign shop is making them...

Total audio in Kansas City's been selling them for between $25 and $40 a set. This guy in singapore's been around lately at about $40 per set. All of a sudden people are willing to go $160 a set? Unbelievable. I think it was Jim Dickinson who said that Altec made the artwork freely available - there've been many repros over the years.
