We have a Klipsch dealer here in Tulsa, and they still have some Klipschorns on display. But that is rare.By the way, how have you been? We've been missing you 'round here!I thought I heard a hurdy gurdy in a movie soundtrack recently. Check it out and tell me if you know whether it was a hurdy gurdy or not.

Thanks for the response, Dave. After I watched the movie, I went to some of the places that sell soundtracks and listened, but never found the track. So I wondered about that, and I'm glad I asked you.The hurdy gurdy is an interesting instrument with an enchanting sound.
