I had tried to muster some interest for this further up: Wisconsin. But the list died and no takers in the larger city areas.

Keep your eye on the AA high efficiency board, occasionally there's the Chicago horn club that goes on up that way they have get-togethers. Bill W.

I wonder if anyone posted on Audiocircle or other sites? Is the horn club somewhat specific? Be nice for all to be able to participate.What about St. Louis?Take care.Steve

Don't know what other sites there posting on, but they did have a link but that doesn't work anymore. Tom Brennan is usually the guy that was running it. Next time I hear of them doing something I'll give you guys a heads up.As far as St. Louis goes I havn't heard of anything over that way.Bill W.
