Ron and I have discovered that A7 cabinets do fit in a minivan---barely. Made a trip to Ron's and snagged a pair of A7 cabs, Colin we will need to compare notes. They need a little work but I can't wait to fill em up and let em rip. Thanks again Ron----Colin the Edgar horns look sweet too.

Some time after the 4th, let's plan on getting together, either in Cincinnati or Dayton. I'm looking forward to meeting you. I would also like to see Ron and Bill E. come over to this part of the state for a listen. Having a small group at my house is no problem. I'd be more than happy to supply the food.....Colin

Have Bill or Ron give Mike Baker a ring too; I'm sure he'll want to hook up with everyone.

Yeah, that would be nice Colin to have a small audio get together at your house and we could all compare notes. We do need Mike Baker to visit us, hard to do though, Mike is a busy boy, but I say we should work on him to join us. Is this a audio get together with or without our significant others? Ron

With significant others (Tim, that would be the one you sleep with - or used to) and kids is fine with me. Let's try to nail a day down in the next couple of weeks. Mid to end of July works for me. We're hosting a neighborhood party about this time, and the wife is pushing to get the house ready for that. I have ton of half finished projects to complete, so this should help me get my ass in gear. Right now my gear is set up in a spare bedroom upstairs, but it might be a good time to bring the gear down to the great room and turn it up. Just tell me what I need to supply and I'll have it ready.....Colin

Ron that was and old car radio speaker I think I told my wife what I posted and she kindly reminded me that they are who/what I will be sleeping with. Maybe we can chip in and rent Ron a U Haul and he can come loaded
